DESCRIPTION

As you look straight on at this cluster of properties, you will see the barn to your right hand side which houses the two new septic tanks. This is a lovely stone barn with solid oak beams. Next door and adjoining is what was the Hotel and Restaurant Bar with 5 stone steps leading to double entrance doors, double glazing, shutters on windows, lovely tiled and wooden floors. There is a large open space where the dining room was placed with the bar and to the rear a very large room where the professional kitchen was held. Stairs to 6 rooms plus toilets and bathrooms. The restaurant originally held 120 covers for diners with parking for up to 15 vehicles. The building to the center has a lovely stone facade, shutters to windows, balcony and cellar plus an enormous stunning attic with exposed beams and windows. The house to the far left also has an attached garage and shutters to windows. There are three wells with this property and large trees and land to the rear plus another old stone outbuilding. There is electricity, water.
