NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Perfectly positioned in the heart of the vibrant and sought-after village of Bize-Minervois, this beautifully proportioned period property is full of character and potential.

Rich in authentic features—such as exposed stone walls dating back to the Middle Ages, intricately tiled floors, marble fireplaces, tall windows, and soaring ceilings—this charming home spans three levels and offers all the timeless appeal of a classic southern French residence.

Currently configured with five ensuite bedrooms, including one conveniently located on the ground floor, the property offers exceptional flexibility. The ground floor includes a welcoming living room, library, guest sitting/dining room, kitchen, and an additional bathroom. Upstairs, you'll find four further ensuite bedrooms, a laundry room, and a long balcony that runs along two sides of the house, overlooking the private courtyard and garden—ideal for relaxing or entertaining guests.

The 160m² walled courtyard garden is a peaceful and private oasis, accessed directly from the ground floor rooms and also via the integrated garage—a rare and valuable feature in village homes. With ample space for outdoor dining or future installation of a swimming pool, the garden adds significantly to the property's appeal.

A spacious attic on the top floor offers further potential for development—whether for additional accommodation, a studio, or a private retreat. While the property would benefit from some cosmetic updating following a period of light use, its solid structure and elegant period features provide a superb foundation for a bespoke renovation.
