NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This fabulous house is in a quiet location on the edge of a wine-producing village and is surrounded by vineyards. It is in excellent condition having had a total renovation in 2009-11, and is beautifully decorated with high quality fittings and oak doors and windows with underfloor heating (via air-source heating or electricity) throughout the ground floor.

One approaches via a no-through lane to a gated entrance with large gravel drive.

The entrance to the house is into the kitchen with the original fireplace, "Prati Cuisine" fitted units with centre island and granite worktops. To the right is a dining room with an open-plan design with the kitchen and extensive views to hills above the Garonne valley. There are stone steps down to the large salon with a new fireplace - the style reflecting the kitchen fireplace - and woodburning stove. To the rear of these rooms is a corridor giving access to 3 bedrooms [2 with ensuites, 1 with separate private shower room] and a family bathroom.

Upstairs there is the master bedroom with air conditioning, and large private bathroom with spa bath, shower and wc.

Separate accommodation with private access, could be created on the ground floor downstairs: it would consist of a large bedroom, shower and wc en-suite with a utility room re configured as a kitchen. There is also interior access to a large garage/store /workshop with new floor and roof.
