NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Elegant 8-Bedroom Château with Gîte, Pool and Outbuildings – Dordogne

Set within over 8 hectares of rolling Dordogne countryside, this beautiful 18th-century château offers approximately 640m² of living space and retains many original features. With sympathetic renovations carried out over the years, the property is comfortable and full of character, yet still offers exciting potential for further restoration. A rare opportunity to live in and enjoy a historic French home while gradually completing your vision.

On the ground floor, the main entrance hall (around 16m²) welcomes you through double doors, with traditional tiled flooring and a magnificent curved yew staircase. To one side is the petit salon (28m²), a bright and elegant room with a working fireplace and four large windows. Nearby, a snug or office (approximately 19m²) also features a fireplace and tiled floors, making it a cosy retreat or workspace.

The grand salon and dining room (around 62m²) is an impressive open-plan space with a beautiful stone fireplace, a log burner, and French doors opening to both the front and rear gardens, ideal for entertaining. The kitchen (35m²) is equally spacious, fitted with built-in units, a central island with storage, cream stone flooring, and a large open fireplace. It, too, enjoys access to both the front and back gardens.

A secondary hallway (14m²) leads to a bedroom (18m²), a WC with sink (3.5m²), and a utility room (9.5m²) that could easily be transformed into an ensuite. Two additional rooms measuring 20m² and 29m² respectively offer excellent...
