NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The village of Thérines is located at the crossroads of communes of Picardie Verte such as Grandvilliers, Marseille en Beauvaisis and Songeons and has in its heritage a recent multifunction room which also houses the school canteen and the extracurricular reception of the schools of the Hautbos, Saint Maur, Saint Deniscourt and Thérines.

The natural environment is not to be outdone since the many woods such as those of La Garenne, the Reserve, Epaty and others draw with the Petit Thérain or Thérinet a hilly landscape offering beautiful views of nearby Normandy.

Thérines is a French commune located in the department of Oise, in the Hauts-de-France region. It is approximately 40 km from Beauvais-Tillé airport and 15 km from the A16 motorway which connects Paris to Calais. Thérines is a rural village with 195 inhabitants according to the 2020 census. Its historical heritage includes the Thérines castle, built in the 18th century, and the Saint-Martin church, dating from the 12th century. Thérines is part of the community of communes of Green Picardy, which brings together 62 communes and offers services and activities to the inhabitants of the territory.
