NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Here is a house that will charm those who are looking for a house with character in a pretty village, and which offers everyone its space. This house meets these criteria perfectly. Situated in the heart of one of the most beautiful villages in the Ariège, this 18th century house is a refuge offering space and tranquillity which will suit families as well as people working from home (teleworkers, craftsmen, artists). Indeed, it is offered on several levels with numerous rooms combining living rooms and more quiet and private space. The garden, located in the direct vicinity of a historic monument, and the panoramic view it offers will be an additional argument among many other assets.

The main entrance overlooks a charming street in the old village and on the ground floor there is a beautiful entrance hall, a 15.80m² living room with its own entrance (it could easily become a small business), a small shower room with toilet, and a large cellar now used as a laundry room, technical room and storage space of 27m².

Taking the stairs, you arrive on the first floor which hosts the main living rooms, a beautiful living room of 22m² and the kitchen-dining room of 46m².

On the second floor, two large and beautiful bedrooms (30 and 35.7m²) are separated by a landing-library giving access to a shower room and the 3rd floor. The large bedroom has its own bathroom and direct access to the outside;

On the 3rd floor, you...
