DESCRIPTION

Located between Saint-Julien-de-Lampon and Gourdon, this superb Dordogne stone house benefits from a privileged natural environment: 2.5 hectares of meadows, woods, and landscaped gardens, all in absolute peace and privacy.

Renovated to an exceptional standard, it combines noble materials, modern comfort, and architectural authenticity.

Interior Designed for Comfort and Light :

The ground floor features a large entrance hall, a 23 m² eat-in kitchen, and a cozy lounge with a traditional cantou fireplace. The main living area, a 78 m² living-dining room, impresses with its volume, stone cantou, 6-meter abbey beams, and integrated lighting in the stone walls.

Upstairs, four large bedrooms enjoy high ceilings, including a 60 m² master suite with marble bathroom, premium fixtures, and dressing room. The attic houses two additional rooms, ideal as bedrooms, office space, or guest rooms.

High-End Finishes :

The renovation was carried out with exceptional care:

- 60 cm thick stone walls, oak joinery, double glazing
- Handcrafted terracotta floors
- Double flooring for enhanced acoustic insulation
- Central heating on the ground floor; radiators upstairs
- Two fully restored stone cantous
- Excellent overall condition, flawless finishes

Outdoor Features: Park, Pool, Natural Springs

The property is surrounded by a landscaped park with two fountains, a well, a natural spring, and a rainwater recovery system.
