IN BRIEF

In Aquitaine, a chateau on the edge of a river. With its outbuildings and its park of three hectares, located in the countryside Lot et Garonnaise. It is composed of three living rooms with parquet floor in the Hungarian style, eight rooms including six in suite. On the second floor, there are eleven additional rooms to be restored which were reserved for the staff of the property.

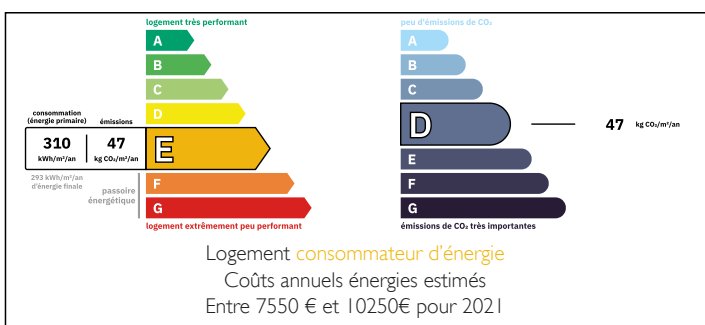

One is conquered by its superb view on the river, its tranquility, but also its original elements: fireplaces, double doors, moldings, woodwork.

The two wings interrupted by a dovecote were used as stables and storage for farm equipment.

A property suitable for the organization of events, weddings, seminars, cousinades and guest rooms
