NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The main house (156m²) is on the east wing and Gîte 1 (70m²) and Gîte 2 (99m²) form the west wing of the property. The main house and Gîtes have linking doors so they can be closed off and be fully independent, or combined as desired. In the centre of the buildings is feature covered archway with glass doors, a door to the kitchen of the main house and access through to the sheltered central garden with original well and expansive private views. At the end of each wing are several outbuildings.

The front entrance to the main house is on the east side of the property and opens into a hallway with a bedroom on the left, bathroom and separate WC. Beyond this is the utility room with boiler and a door leading outside to the central garden area. From the hallway on the right, is a large main salon with fireplace and double aspect windows. At the far end of the salon is the kitchen with a door outside to the covered archway.

Upstairs, on the right are 3 bedrooms and a bathroom with shower and WC. There is a hatch to access a large dovecote. On the left there is a bedroom currently used as an office with windows to the front and the back.

Back on the ground floor at the far end of the east wing of the property, there is a laundry utility room, shower room, WC, large workshop (23.5m²)...
