NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This is a very special stone period house of approximately 185m² of habitable space, lovingly renovated and restored whilst keeping all its original charm. Full of light and air and yet cool in the heat of summer. Ideal as family home, holiday home, or even as a Chambre D'hôte, especially with its private and charming two bedroom apartment with private sun drenched terrace on the top floor.

On the banks of the river Cesse right opposite some of the best river swimming in the region in one of the most sought after villages of all. Who could ask for more?!
