IN BRIEF

This enchanting property is majestic in every way. It has not only many original features, but the workmanship over the years is of top notch quality. There are in fact two houses that interconnect but are kept separate for the practical reason of renting the smaller part out as a gite. They both look upon the stunning courtyard, each with their own private terrace. Down the lane is a barn in tip top condition with plenty of room to park and keep garden tools.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

One enters the main property either from the stately front or through the courtyard garden. There are plenty of ornate curved french windowed doors which let in an abundance of light. The high ceilings throughout give a sense of grandeur and space.

The entire property is full of period features which have been lovingly looked after.

The main house is spread over 3 floors. Downstairs starts with a roomy entryway ((12,3m2) a grand salon (32,4m2) with a massive fireplace over which is a huge mezzanine. A new fitted kitchen installed in 2022, a laundry room and w.c. complete downstairs. Up the majestic oak steps brings you an office/artist space which follows round to a colossal bedroom with balcony bed, stained glass window and another jaw-dropping fireplace. This room has its own ensuite up some steps with an italian shower, wc and a huge walk in closet.

Here you can really imagine being royalty. This room has its own pretty terrace where you can enjoy your morning libation in the sunshine. From a different set of steps, you will discover two nice size bedrooms, and a large bathroom and w.c.

You enter the gite from the little sun trap of a terrace directly into a large fitted kitchen/dining area. To the right is a large salon with chimney and a secret entrance to the wine cellar. One double bedroom and a family bath complete the gite. Both properties are interconnected...
