DESCRIPTION

The building has undergone some renovation. It has secondary double glazing throughout. It still needs a lot of remedial work. This house has previously been used as a shop on the ground floor at the front. This space could be used as a lounge area. There is access to a cellar which is the same size as the shop and is 12msq. This leads to a middle room which has a tiled floor and sky light and also a toilet room .This in turn leads to the large kitchen dining area. The kitchen leads onto a secluded and secure courtyard. From the middle room there is a stunning and unusual galleried wooden staircase. On the first floor there are 3 bedrooms and large bathroom which needs renovation. The staircase leads to the second floor where there are two more rooms.
