DESCRIPTION

Set in the beautiful Normandy countryside but with proximity to all amenities, the complex comprises of three separate houses all with lovely modern decor and each with their own access.

The first house is a longère, barn conversion with five bedrooms which comfortably sleeps ten people. On the ground floor, there is a large family style kitchen diner perfect for groups of friends to cook up a storm and share a meal. There are two large ensuite double bedrooms on the ground floor also. Upstairs there is a large living/entertaining space with double sided wood burner and plenty of space for sofas and a pool table. There is also a lovely terrace overlooking the outdoor pool and hot tub area, which has plenty of space for sunbathing and socialising. There is also a private enclosed garden area perfect for barbecues.

The second house, where the current owners live, could also be used as a further gite space. With its large open plan kitchen/dining and living space, beautiful fireplace with wood burner and patio doors out to the garden, it would make the perfect holiday rental. On the ground floor, the property also benefits from two double bedrooms, laundry/utility room, family bathroom and an office space. Upstairs there is a further two large double bedrooms, family bathroom, and a large entertaining space currently used as a games room and bar. Outside there is some private garden space with a hot tub.

The third house is a charming...
