IN BRIEF

A rare opportunity in the heart of Bize-Minervois, a charming medieval village. Rich in history and character, this unique property retains many original features including exposed stone walls, wooden beams, traditional tiled floors, with parts of the home dating back to the 15th century. The entrance opens into a welcoming lounge/reception room leading to a distinctive kitchen and dining space with beautiful curved walls, complemented by a private 13m² courtyard. The first floor offers a bright large lounge with wood pellet burner, a double bedroom with ensuite shower room, and a balcony. The second floor features three further double bedrooms, a y shower room, and another balcony. Crowning the property is a spectacular 70m² roof terrace with stunning views over the village and river, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Enjoy the convenience of village life with...
