IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of a typical Normandy village, this unique property offers strong income potential in a stunning setting with extensive landscaped gardens and open countryside views.

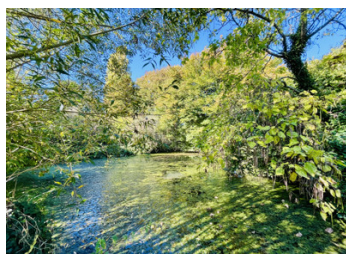

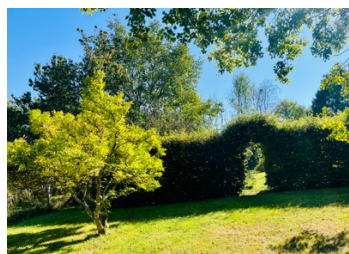

Formerly a popular hotel and specialist vegetarian restaurant (now closed), it is ideal for anyone seeking a lifestyle change or tourism-based business.

The main building includes a spacious dining room, a large professional kitchen and three letting bedrooms, with scope to create more. Two well-presented gîtes are ready to rent, while a third requires renovation.

The property also benefits from extensive kitchen gardens, previously used to supply the restaurant with home-grown produce. A rare opportunity to create a thriving hospitality or holiday accommodation business in an exceptional rural
