NOTES

DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, you are welcomed by a spacious kitchen that opens onto a bright and airy living room. From the living area, you have direct access to an office that currently serves as an accessible bedroom on the ground floor. In addition, this floor features a well-equipped toilet and a shower room with high-quality Grohe taps. The rooms are heated by underfloor heating.

On the first floor, you will find three spacious double bedrooms, each tastefully decorated. There is also a separate toilet and shower room, with the same high-quality finish to ensure your comfort.

Outside, the landscaped gardens offer privacy and ease of maintenance. Several patios invite you to enjoy the morning and evening sun. As a bonus, there is a practical 10 m² outbuilding for storage, which houses the automatic irrigation system, and enough space to realise the dream of a swimming pool.

The central location of this property makes it an excellent base for exploring the region, with nearby attractions such as charming 'villages de caractère', antique markets in Barjac and historic market towns such as Les Vans, St Ambroix or Uzès. For active types, the area offers a range of water adventures in the Cèze or Villefort rivers, Vallon Pont d'Arc, as well as numerous opportunities for climbing, mountaineering, hiking and cycling.
