DESCRIPTION

Searching for that perfect opportunity to be able to stay in France as a full-time resident? By purchasing this up and running successful Irish style bar/restaurant will give you that access.

Situated in a prime position, the N21 carries traffic from the North to the South of France and onto Spain, the property consists of the bar/restaurant business, a three bedroom owners house and an adjoining apartment which would be perfect for rentals or as a B&B.

The property has been fully renovated by the present vendors, they have built up the business from scratch and it is with a heavy heart that they are now selling. It is a popular bar/restaurant which receives both new and returning clients of all nationalities. The turnover is a good one and there is massive room to increase; depending on what plans you have for the pub/restaurant. The vendor would be prepared to give on-site training to the new owner if required.

The restaurant area has 30 covers, the total number of covers can be exceeded in the summer months when clients can use the large garden terrace.
