NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property offers two spacious apartments on the ground floor both have a bedroom, living area, kitchen, bathroom and private entrance. The principle entrance to the owners accommodation is on the first floor with a porch leading into a spacious farmhouse kitchen/diner with a wood burning stove and exposed stone walls and beams. On the same floor is a generous sitting room and a further two bedrooms with an en suite. On the second floor there is a large bedroom, an en suite and a office/music room. Next to this is an attic area which could be converted into a further bedroom or living space.

Outside there is a separate building offering space for a garage/workshop and a large second outbuilding ideal for garden machinery and workshop tools. There is a wooden cabin in the garden as well as an alfresco living/eating area, a small stream runs through the gardens offering an absolute haven for nature as well as the garden enthusiast.

A truly beautiful house and grounds; many more photos and information on request.
