IN BRIEF

At the gateway to the Scevolles forest, so pleasant for walks whatever the season, this stone property is suitable for people with animals thanks to its large plot of pasture land, part of which is in a building zone, allowing the construction of shelters.

This richly soiled meadow with its well is also ideal for market gardening..

It also has a large stone shed and an unenclosed garage.

The floor tiles, beams and fireplace on the ground floor will appeal to lovers of old-world charm, while the upstairs could do with some decorative work.
