NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Upon entering the chalet on the ground floor, you are greeted by a practical layout designed for both convenience and comfort. The entrance via the garage leads to a convenient ski room, allowing for effortless storage of your winter equipment. The ground floor also hosts the properties six bedrooms, each with its own en-suite shower room. Two separate WCs complete this level.

On the first floor, you'll discover the spacious open-plan living area bathed in natural light from the impressive floor to ceiling windows. Here, a well-appointed fitted kitchen awaits, along with the open plan dining room and sitting area, an impressive modern space which enjoys stunning vistas of the village and the surrounding mountains. The large south west facing terrace beckons you to soak in these breathtaking mountain views. The possibility of installing a stove or fireplace adds to the cosy ambiance, perfect for those winter evenings. Completing this level is a laundry/storeroom and a separate WC.

Ascend to the mezzanine, where a cosy lounge area awaits, providing an additional space for relaxation or TV entertainment.

Outside you'll discover the ultimate indulgence - an outdoor barrel sauna, offering a perfect place to relax and unwind after a long day on the slopes. The chalet also comes with several external parking spaces.
