IN BRIEF

This lovely renovated property offers a wonderful living space for all the family. There are a couple of things that needs fnishing but the big jobs are done, so you can settle in as soon as you arrive.

This property can be found in a small hamlet about 5 mins by car to the nearest towns of Chabanais or Roumazieres, although within a short walk you have a bakers, small corner shop, pharmacy and a bar/restaurant. Perfect for morning croissants or an evening apero in the local bar. The beautiful Charente river also passes through giving wonderful walks along the banks, picnic seats and even canoeing!

DESCRIPTION

This lovely property comprises of an openplan living space with fitted kitchen 20m², dining room and lounge 30m² with a wood burner and its many features including stone walls and beams, a fitted utility room/wet room, 3 bedrooms 9m², 13m² and 18m², plenty of cupboard space and access to the attached barn.

The hamlet is undergoing some works at the moment because the commune is having mains drainage fitted, great news for the residence !

There is a small outbuilding that would make an ideal gite, so if you are not afraid of some hard work, this could be a great little income ! Just in front of this is a small outside area, big enough for bbq, table and chairs. There is another small piece of land just opposite the main house.

So if you want to be in rural France this Summer in your own home, contact us now .. Definitely worth viewing !
