IN BRIEF

Dating back to the 16th century, it has been magnificently renovated, while retaining its original character. It boasts a wealth of authentic features, including monumental fireplaces, stained glass windows, interior shutters, stone walls and exposed beams, terracotta floor tiles... Everything you would expect from a building steeped in history, but with all the modern comforts of today.

A beautiful summer kitchen with bread oven, a dovecote, a vast adjoining barn and a large swimming pool with jacuzzi complete this splendid ensemble. In a dominant position, and surrounded by its 5 hectares of land, it offers absolutely magnificent views of the village and its château.

It is 50 minutes from Angoulême, 1 hour from Périgueux and Bergerac, and 1.20 hours from Bordeaux.
