IN BRIEF

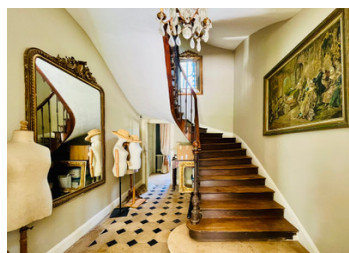

A rare opportunity to acquire a historic property of grandeur and character, set within easy reach of a major town with mainline station — Paris 2 hours.

This elegant 17th-century chateau has been in the hands of its current owner, a renowned designer, for many years — and their impeccable taste is reflected throughout. Arranged around a courtyard, the property is flanked by two beautiful outbuildings, adding both charm and potential.

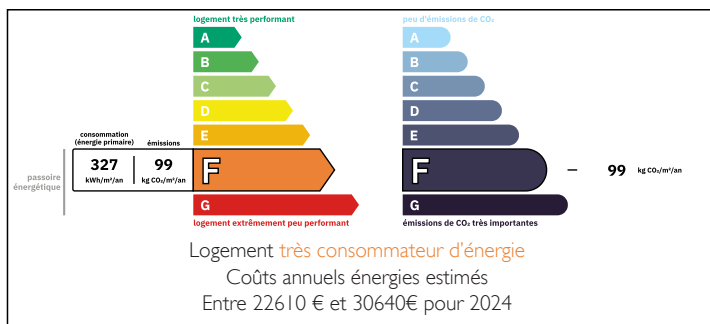

The chateau itself offers magnificent reception rooms with exquisite period details, including original parquet and stone floors, marble fireplaces, and moulded ceilings.

Two independent buildings, one, the former carriage house, has been transformed into a stunning reception area, an ideal venue for weddings and events, the second, partly renovated, offers further potential to create a grand dining hall and kitchen.

The grounds, extending to 10.13 ha (25 acres), include a...
