NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Rochebonne is one of Saint-Malo's most popular neighbourhoods, located at the northern end of the famous Sillon beach. This residential area, appreciated for its calm and authenticity, is distinguished by its seaside atmosphere and its immediate proximity to the sea. The elegant houses and characterful buildings that make up the district often offer uninterrupted views of the ocean. Rochebonne is ideal for lovers of nature and the great outdoors, with its long walks along the beach and panoramic views of the iconic rock.

Local shops, restaurants and cafés are just a stone's throw away, all in a peaceful setting. Well-connected to the historic centre of Saint-Malo and to Intra-Muros, Rochebonne offers a rare quality of life, combining tranquillity, access to amenities and total immersion in the marine atmosphere. It's an ideal neighbourhood for families or residents looking for both serenity and proximity to the beaches.

The Rochebonne district and Le Sillon have good transport links, making it easy to get to the centre of Saint-Malo and surrounding areas. Several regular bus routes run nearby, quickly linking the district with Intra-Muros, Saint-Malo SNCF station, other parts of the city and neighbouring communes.

Saint-Malo SNCF station, less than 10 minutes away by car or bus, offers direct links to cities such as Rennes (around 1 hour by train) and Paris (around 2h15 by TGV). Le Sillon and Rochebonne are particularly pleasant places to walk or cycle, with cycle paths and walks along the beach.
