NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this charming house nestled in the heart of Gattières, a picturesque medieval village on the stunning Côte d'Azur, just a stone's throw away from Nice. From the moment you step into its tranquil courtyard and garden, you'll be captivated by its character and allure.

Ideal as either a permanent family residence or a delightful holiday getaway, this property also holds promise as a savvy investment opportunity. Whether you envision it as a cozy B&B, offering a steady passive income, or as a sought-after short-term rental in one of the region's prime tourist destinations, the potential is endless.

This unique property boasts a quaint courtyard garden, a rare find among similar homes in historic villages, with an above-ground swimming pool. Spread across three levels and easily accessible by car, it features a coveted closed garage, a rarity in this charming French village, with potential for a second. A spacious wine cellar is available. There is room for a second cellar, although it remains unused by the current owners.

The ground level, accessible via the courtyard garden, welcomes you with an entrance hall, a spacious kitchen with dining area, a living room with balcony, a courtyard-facing bedroom, and a bathroom with WC. A beautiful historic staircase connects the ground and upper levels.

Upstairs, discover three bedrooms, two with private balconies, a generous living area with a wood-burning stove, and a shower room with WC. The living room extends to a unique atypical terrace, offering a serene spot for...
