IN BRIEF

This delightful country cottage with outbuildings and a lovely garden has everything you need for your new life in France. Situated outside the hamlet of Saint-Martin-de-Landelles and a short drive to the market town of Saint-Hilaire du Harcouët, this house full of character has been nicely renovated with some original features left intact, feature fireplace, beams, exposed stone walls.

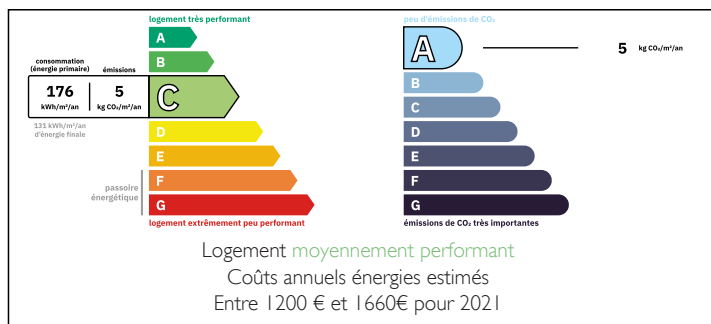

The entrance hall leads you to a family bathroom with WC and a useful laundry/utility room. Off this you enter a cosy living room with a brand new pellet burner and a bright fully renovated country kitchen-diner with a new wood burner and enough room for a dining table.

In the entrance, you find a first staircase leading to a nice double bedroom. This part of the house could be used/rented as an independent apartment.
