NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Discover this beautiful property that combines timeless charm with a modern lifestyle. This property boasts a superb location with the best views of vineyards and income potential with a stunning gite. The property is located in the Lot et Garonne department, in south-west France, 20 minutes from the very pretty town of Nérac and 1h15 from Bordeaux or 1h20 from Toulouse with their international airports. Situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in a secluded location, the small village of Buzet de Baise is just a few minutes away for all your daily needs. With its pleasant living areas, well-equipped kitchens, spacious bedrooms and a 10 x 5 metre pool with terrace and adjoining summer kitchen, this property promises an inviting lifestyle. Outside, the open lawns, mature fruit trees and enchanting shrubs provide a place for rest and relaxation. A large double garage with a canopy for wood, provides ample space and storage. The main house offers the following accommodation: A 35 m' open-plan chef's kitchen with central island and granite worksurfaces is connected to a dining room also measuring 34 m² featuring original 19th century decorative cement tile flooring. A 23 m² living room with wood-burning stove. Another 48 m² living room with a further open-plan kitchen is connected to the first floor by a staircase and leads to an office on the gallery. An access leads to the garden via a large covered terrace. The ground floor also has a shower room...
