IN BRIEF

This beautiful detached stone property is nestled down a small country road with no passing traffic and just a couple of neighbours, it remains completely private. The house retains bags of character within its spacious walls, with the exposed stone walls and large beams and, has also been renovated to a high quality and tasteful finish. The garden benefits from mature trees and shrubs and has a 11m x 5m swimming pool with travertine terrace, a security cover and a pool house with air source heat pump.

The village of Cognac sur L'Isle is just a 5 minutes drive, the river L'Isle runs through the village, there are lots of grassy shady areas for picnics and paddling. The village has a bar, tabac, village shop, restaurant, hairdresser, chemist, pharmacy and an English speaking doctor. A leisure...
