IN BRIEF

This pretty house is in need of some care but, once renovated, will make an ideal holiday or permanent home. The ground floor provides a good-sized open-plan kitchen/dining room/ sitting room with a fireplace, whilst upstairs there is a bedroom and bathroom, together with a mezzanine area. This area, once a partition wall is constructed, would easily make a further bedroom. Useful built-in cupboards provide great storage space. Outside there are large, unoverlooked gardens with a useful wooden garden shed, together with a small hen house behind.

The property is situated close to useful road links, which lead towards Lorient to the south and beautiful Finistère to the north. The lovely market towns of Le Faouët and Gourin, with their weekly markets, are within easy reach, as are many other places of interest.
