IN BRIEF

Dating from 1780 this beautiful riverside property with views over the Dordogne river and old Bergerac has been completely renovated offering a spacious and light living space. This stone house is situated in an ideal location, a quiet riverside square only two steps away from the old Bergerac. Spacious accommodation including a living room, kitchen, dining room, outside courtyard, three bedrooms and stairs leading up to the roof space where a further roof terrace could be arranged. A stunning stone vaulted cellar to store your wine. Ideal home or lock up and leave with huge potential for rental income. Eminent wine region with a plethora of chateaux to visit and activities to enjoy! Bergerac airport makes this destination eminently accessible all year round.
