IN BRIEF

Rare opportunity to take over such a well-situated shop. Over the years, this shop has become a household name and has built up a regular clientele of both regular residents and tourists. The shop has an area of 60 m2 and on the first floor there is another 60 m2, which can be used as storage space.

The shop has specialised in selling wines and spirits for 18 years, achieving a very good turnover. However, the lease has no restrictions, so you can completely decide what kind of shop you want to start in this space.

DESCRIPTION

Rare opportunity to take over such a well-situated shop. Over the years, this shop has become a household name and has built up a regular clientele of both regular residents and tourists. The shop has an area of 60 m2 and on the first floor there is another 60 m2, which can be used as storage space.

The shop has specialised in selling wines and spirits for 18 years, achieving a very good turnover. However, the lease has no restrictions, so you can completely decide what kind of shop you want to start in this space.

Due to its location close to a supermarket, many people pass by the shop every day. The other small shops in the immediate vicinity are currently rather complementary than competitive. The large car park ensures that there is almost always space to park. Private parking is located behind the building.

Bormes-les-Mimosas and Le Lavandou are well-known tourist resorts, which makes for busy summer months, but also have many 2nd home owners and a reasonably large number of permanent residents, which ensures that a shop is not solely dependent on tourists.

If you want to continue the shop in its current function, it is possible to take over the current stock.

Don't miss this rare opportunity and contact us yourself for a visit or for more information.
