DESCRIPTION

The entrance to the house leads into the first reception room (13m²) which is heated by a log burner and is currently used as a dining room and lounge. It has a lovely tiled floor.

To the right of this room is a nice lounge (13m²) with wooden floor and multifuel burner. Both rooms have double glazing.

The first reception room also leads into the kitchen (12m²) with fitted units with integral oven and hob and extractor fan.

Stairs lead up to the bathroom (8m²), which has a shower, WC and small bath.

Further stairs then lead to three bedrooms (12m², 11m² and 6.5m²).

To the side of the house is a terrace which leads to an outside bar area, and access to the boiler room, workshop, cellar and storage area.

The garden is to the right of the house which also has a well and pizza oven, and vegetable patch. It also has plenty of room for a hot tub and/or above ground pool. Further to the right of the garden there is parking space for 3/4 cars together with additional sitting areas.

The house is within walking distance of St Dizier Masbaraud which has a shop, bakery, hairdresser and bar.

More facilities are available at medieval market town Bourgneuf (10 minute drive) with supermarkets, bars and restaurants.
