NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A charming winemaker's house on a quiet lane in the village of Arsac that has maintained many of its period features. The 2 hectares of land are split between the garden including a heated swimming pool and woodland. The extensive 350m² of living space is predominately on the ground floor and could quite easily be split into two interconnected living spaces. The west wing has 4 ground floor bedrooms and 2 bathrooms and 2 reception rooms. The east wing has 2 en suite bedrooms, a large living room with working fireplace, dining room, veranda, fitted kitchen, utility room and a tasting room featuring a brick bread oven.

This home is perfect for entertaining. A wooden pergola sits next to the heated swimming pool for alfresco dining in the shade. Working fireplaces make this characterful house perfect for Christmas celebrations too. A stone extension to the house close to the swimming pool houses a jacuzzi. Additional outbuildings include a garage for garden equipment and stables. The garden is fenced with an electric gate. The house has gas heating and reversible air conditioning in several rooms.

Arsac is a dynamic village easily accessible to Bordeaux which is 25km away. Bordeaux airport is a 28-minute drive. Arsac is next to the Médoc wine route and several Cru Classé wine Châteaux are within minutes of this property. Lacanau and other Atlantic beaches are also easily accessible via quiet country roads.
