IN BRIEF

From the comfort of your own living room, and balcony, you have front row seats to enjoy Lac Léman (Lake Geneva) in all its splendour. Year-round, whether it's the magical sunsets on balmy summer evenings, or the snow-capped Jura mountains in winter, you will never tire of the spectacular views from this charming first-floor apartment on the lakefront. Step outside of the front door and you are right on the Nernier's port, and just a few footsteps from the village's beach. This apartment would make a lovely home or secondary residence, or rental investment.

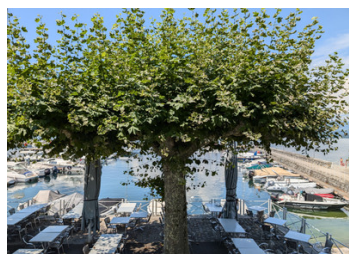

- Lakefront/harbourside location.
- Fabulous Lac Léman (Lake Geneva) views.
- Port and beach right on doorstep.
- Ferry service to Nyon, Switzerland, docks less than 200 metres away
- Characterful, medieval village of Nernier.
- Commutable to Geneva by road.

About the village:

Nemier is a wonderful village, packed with period charm and architecture, and enjoying a simply stunning location on the French shores of Lac Léman. For those lucky enough to live in Nemier year round, the quality of life is second-to-none. For holidays, what better place to recharge your batteries? The population of around 500 is a harmonious mix of French locals, some of whom have family links to Nemier dating back generations, some of whom have arrived more recently, and expats from all corners of the globe. For more information: <https://bit.ly/2JUCx0N> For everyday amenities, the neighbouring village of Messery is very useful. It also has nursery and primary schools. For secondary schools, Douvaine - around 8 km/approx. 11 minutes' drive - is the closest.

Transport:

- Around 10 km/approx. 15 minutes by car from the Swiss border at Hermance. From Hermance there is a regular bus service into Geneva.

- Around 25 km/approx. 30 minutes by car from central Geneva.

- There is also a car park at Geneva Plage from which there are bus services into central Geneva.
