NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In a prime location, with its own garage, this house is a great find! The history of the building has been so well preserved, but not at the expense of modern comforts, resulting in an opportunity not to be missed.

The entrance door leads into a spacious hallway (9m²), in the 19th century front of the house, and to the staircase to the main living space above.

From here is access to the large garage (36m²) and the stone vaulted cellar behind (22m²).

The cellar has plumbing for a washing machine, and access to the rear courtyard.

The staircase leads first to the rear 17th century part of the building, and into the kitchen / dining room (24m²). The modern kitchen units, with integrated appliances, contrast with the original working fireplace with a "cassoulet oven" below.

A stone staircase leads down to the cobbled courtyard (21m²), a leafy private space for outside dining.

To the front of the house, at a slightly higher level, is the sitting room (20m²) with a working fireplace, and a study area (8m²). This leads to the library (11m²). There is also a WC at this level.

Returning to the rear of the house, and the second floor, there is the second sitting room, or TV lounge (18m²), and down a few stairs is a study, or small bedroom (6m²).

Above this lies the master bedroom (18m²) with en-suite bathroom (7m²).

Finally, to the front, on the second floor there are 2 more bedrooms (13m² and 14m²), a...
