DESCRIPTION

In the charming Provençal village of Le Castellet, nestled in the heart of Provence, lies this elevated terraced house. Entering through a bright veranda, you are immediately embraced by a warm and welcoming atmosphere. This veranda leads to a spacious living room and a fitted kitchen. The house comprises two large bedrooms, offering various layout possibilities.

Below the house, three large storage rooms offer interesting potential, which can be converted into independent studios or a full apartment—ideal for hosting guests or generating rental income. The 330 m² garden is a true haven of peace, with stunning views of the surrounding hills, perfect for outdoor relaxation, serenaded by the colors of the sunset and the scents of the land.

While some small improvements (such as renovations or insulation) could be considered, the house has always been lived in and is ready to welcome you.

Le Castellet is surrounded by rolling landscapes. The region is renowned for its hilltop villages, local markets brimming with fresh and artisanal products, and festivals celebrating the Provençal way of life. You can explore the surrounding hills on foot or by bike, savor the wines from nearby estates, and enjoy the mild and sunny climate that makes Provence so famous.

This is an ideal destination for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle, in harmony with nature and Provençal traditions. This house is perfect for families, couples in search of serenity, or those looking to develop a rental business or guesthouse.
