NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This stunning property has been thoughtfully renovated over the years, skillfully blending original features with modern comforts. Nestled at the end of a quiet hamlet, this charming character home offers tranquility and breathtaking countryside views in an unspoilt area of France.

Main House Layout:

Ground Floor:

The heart of the home features an open-plan kitchen and dining room, complete with a cozy woodburner and stairs leading to the first floor. Adjacent is a snug room, perfect for a second dining area or lounge. A convenient toilet and access to the laundry room and boiler room complete this level.

First Floor:

A large, light-filled living area greets you, along with a spacious bedroom boasting an en-suite bathroom and a dressing room.

Second Floor:

The second floor hosts a bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and a Velux balcony that offers spectacular views of the surrounding countryside. From a separate corridor, you'll find a bedroom with a charming mezzanine, a small bedroom, and another bathroom.

The house is bathed in natural light, featuring high ceilings that enhance its character and charm.

Leading from the kitchen, a large covered terrace provides stunning views of the countryside, with steps descending to the beautifully landscaped garden. At garden level you have access to the wine cellar, laundry room, and boiler room.

Barn:

Attached to the house is a spacious barn with two levels. The upper level, accessed from the parking area at the rear, serves as a workshop and storage
