NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This luxurious estate is a rare find in the sought-after Médoc region. The main house offers a spacious layout with high-end finishes, from the large fitted kitchen to the expansive master and family suites, ensuring comfort and style throughout. The stunning winter garden is perfect for enjoying the beauty of every season, while the pool and grounds provide a serene escape.

In addition to the main residence, five independent flats offer flexibility for generating income as gîtes or vacation rentals. The property's extensive grounds, pool house, and proximity to both the coast and renowned Médoc vineyards create a peaceful yet vibrant setting, ideal for developing a boutique guesthouse, holiday retreat, or family estate.

Whether you seek a tranquil private residence, a thriving hospitality business, or both, this former wine estate offers endless possibilities in one of France's most picturesque regions.
