IN BRIEF

This elegant mansion, built around 1920, is in need of someone to bring it back to its former glory. Its construction is sound, but it needs an important budget to rewire it, to install bathrooms, a kitchen and gas-fired heating, and to carry out paint and plaster work. The house is single-glazed. Fibre optic internet can be connected. Water and electricity (smart meter) are on site. The floors, consisting of decorative cement tiles and parquet, are in good condition. From the ornamental entrance hall there is a beautiful wooden staircase leading to the first floor landing. Another wooden staircase at the back of the house leads straight to the night quarters of the property. After restoration this house will once more become a much-loved home, combining modern comforts with the charm of days gone by. Its location,...
