IN BRIEF

A gorgeous and well restored stone property at the edge of a tiny and quiet rural hamlet not far from Pompadour. The house has 3 bedrooms and a covered veranda that overlooks the garden and view, it also has impressive period features notably a superb stone fireplace and bread oven and has an economical heat pump heating system. There is a two bedroom guest cottage catered for wheelchairs, has its own covered veranda, open plan sitting room kitchen with again a fabulous stone fireplace and bread oven. A wing of the main house consists of a single bedroom open plan studio apartment with independent access. All this within a beautifully maintained garden with a functioning well and a terrace with a small integrated swimming pool.
