NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Turn-key business opportunity or wonderful family home: it's up to you!

This spacious village house, situated in popular Bugeat can be both. It offers an open plan, well-equipped kitchen, which seamlessly flows into a lovely lounge with a log burner.

The 'official' sitting room has its own log burner, a guarantee for snug evenings in winter. This sitting room has an entrance to the outside terrace and garden.

The downstairs toilet has been cleverly hidden under the magnificent staircase.

On the first floor there are no less than four beautiful bedrooms, each with a workspace, a shower and a toilet. The second floor is an enormous space, divided into two bedrooms, one with a bathroom and toilet, the other room offers ample space for its own private bathroom (plumbing is already in place) and the laundry room and storage for the B&B.

Bugeat is a lively village, well-known for its sportive activities, the beautiful countryside around it, its summer markets, the music events etc. The public lakes around offer plenty of fun in summer. That is why this property does great as a B&B business. Why wait? Come and see it for yourself!
