DESCRIPTION

The entrance to the house is from the front garden (via a gate from the little road), and leads into a nice East facing veranda attracting the morning sunlight. A door to the left leads down into the cave. A door then leads into a hallway. To the right of the hallway is a tidy shower room with heated towel rail, large shelved cupboard, double glazed window and with a separate WC. From the hallway to the left is a bright and airy lounge with new log burner (fitted 2023 & "green flame"), large cupboard with fitted shelves and external French doors which leads onto the secluded terrace at the back of the house. To the right of the lounge is the kitchen with fitted cupboards, plumbed dishwasher, electric cooker hood extractor fan, electric point for a cooker, larder, and windows overlooking the terrace. The flooring is wooden floorboards or French tiles (possibly original).

NOTES

A lovely wooden staircase (insulated underneath) leads upstairs to the three good size bedrooms, the staircase has a false wooden ceiling (insulated) that also provides access to the small loft (insulated). The main bedroom boasts a dressing area and access to the balcony (via French doors), which provides fantastic views overlooking the gardens, the village and the surrounding countryside. The balcony and terrace are in sunshine in the afternoon and well into the evening.

Outside, there is the nice private terrace, and a good size enclosed garden, ideal for growing vegetables etc....
