IN BRIEF

Already depicted on the cadastre Napoléon map of 1811, this property which was once the ancient stables of a bigger house has been stunningly restored with an open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room downstairs with French doors that open onto private fenced garden, and 2 comfortable bedrooms with an up to date shower room upstairs. The property has direct access to stunning country walks along the Auvézère river valley 600 meters away as well as village shops, restaurants and a primary school just a short walk away. Ideal for a young family, easy for a retired couple or as a country retreat for city dwellers, a must see!!
