IN BRIEF

Grab yourself a slice of paradise on earth by building your own home, according to your own specifications, on this outstanding plot of land situated in a quiet hamlet very close to the Dordogne river. The land is on the edge of the hamlet so has no close neighbours, however it is only a 5 minute drive to the dynamic town of Beaulieu-sur-Dordogne, which offers all health facilities plus a wide variety of restaurants and shops. The plot itself, which measures almost 4 and a half acres, is gently sloping but has 2 relatively flat portions, which are where the building is permitted. So you could build a wonderful contemporary new home on one part of the land and a swimming pool on the other... or else a second house to use for friends or as a gite....

DESCRIPTION

Building land with 2 planning consents in place, on the edge of a pretty, peaceful hamlet. There is an old small barn in ruins on the land which could be recuperated. The plot benefits from two accesses from the nearby road and all utility supplies are available to install from the edge of the plot. The construction of a new house on this plot would of course be subject to planning permission. Sanitation to be carried out with the construction.
