NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This characterful townhouse in the heart of Fources, one of the most picturesque bastide towns in southwestern France, combines traditional charm with modern living. Spread across the ground, first, and second floors, the property features a spacious living room with exposed beams, a modern kitchen with an island, and three well-sized bedrooms. Old meets new; the wooden and terracotta floor tiles, beam features combining with the oil fuelled central heating ensure that modern living can be achieved whilst retaining the original character. The townhouse is bright and airy, offering panoramic views of the stunning historic village.

The modern kitchen is a standout, complete with contemporary fixtures and an island for easy meal preparation and entertaining. The three bedrooms provide ample space for family or guests.

Fources, a classified village, is known for its medieval square and historical buildings, and is a prime location for anyone who values French heritage. The village hosts seasonal events, local markets, and is close to numerous vineyards, ideal for wine lovers and those wishing to immerse themselves in the local culture.

Though there is no garden or parking directly associated with the property, residents will enjoy the convenience of being within walking distance to shops, restaurants, and amenities. Maybe you have a competitive streak or fancy a leisurely 'knock about' its worth noting that the newly renovated tennis court at the rear of the village is for all inhabitants of Fources to take advantage of. Although watching from afar may...
