DESCRIPTION

If your dream is to find a charming hideaway in the Pyrénées where you can welcome friends and family in comfort and style, this delightful farmhouse in the Basque Country will be perfect for you!

Renovated in 2012, many of the property's original architectural features have been retained to create Basque character with contemporary comfort... In addition, photovoltaic solar panels on the roof help to generate electricity for the reversible air-conditioning in this eco-friendly farmhouse.

Set in hillside gardens of 2,052m², the farmhouse has 140m² of habitable space, along with 75m² of unconverted space in an adjoining two-storey workshop. The property also has a south-facing terrace, a summer kitchen with covered dining terrace and glorious panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Completely private and secluded, the location of the farmhouse is a veritable haven of peace and tranquility...

From the local village, a winding country lane takes you up to the farmhouse and then continues on to two neighbouring properties (150 metres and 1 km further up the hill). There is space to park in front of the farmhouse or in a courtyard behind the farmhouse; you can also park one car in a small garage that adjoins the workshop or two cars in a double garage, which is accessible from the courtyard behind the farmhouse. A door at the back of the double garage leads out to the side of the farmhouse, where stone steps lead down to a garden shed and the south-facing terrace, which...
