NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set back from a road this is project with so much potential in a rural location.

Ground floor.

You enter into a spacious and light living room of around 33m2 with open fireplace. Off this reception room is another room of about 22m2 and next to this, space is, another potential room of 18m2. There is scope to increase the living accommodation and this essentially is a blank canvas for you to make your mark.

First floor.

Stairs from the living room lead to two further large rooms under eaves of 29m2 and 22m2. There is potential to create two en-suite bedrooms.

Outside.

There is a separate barn building that makes excellent storage. At the side of the house is an open hangar with the potential to make a garage subject to permissions. There is an attic space above. The land is in two parts behind the house and a smaller area to the front. There is private parking.
