IN BRIEF

This charming house tucked away on the edge of a little village in the wooded mountains above Carcassonne, south-west France, is the ideal getaway. Everything you need is here including a lovely private terrace overlooking the quality, in-ground heated swimming pool and garden beyond. A perfect place to relax, hidden from view. With modern comforts, the house has not lost its rustic charm and welcomes you either as a permanent home or as a very comfortable holiday home. The four bedrooms and two bathrooms, as well as a cosy living space with open kitchen mean it is ideal for larger families or groups. The large open grounds beyond the pool and terrace offer plenty of space for running around or as a blank canvas for creating a beautiful garden. With fencing it would make a great paddock for...
