NOTES

DESCRIPTION

You enter this charming property through a beautiful wrought-iron gate and immediately face the stunning facade, which is oriented towards the rising sun.

This house, part of which dates from the late 19th century and the other from the 1940s, has retained many old features: stone walls, a wooden staircase, and pretty interior doors.

From the entrance, you step into a large, fully equipped, and recently fitted 25 m² kitchen/diner.

On the ground floor, there is a beautiful 31 m² living room with a bay window overlooking the surrounding countryside, inviting you to contemplate the view while enjoying the fireplace insert on winter days. On this level, you also have a 17.5 m² dining room, a shower room, a toilet, a laundry room, and a storeroom.

Upstairs, there are three beautiful bedrooms ranging from 16 to 23.5 m², one of which has a dressing room, as well as a bathroom and a toilet.

The attic of the house has been converted into a large 27 m² bedroom on the ground floor (17 m² under Carrez Law), complemented by a toilet.

Separated from the main house by a large 115 m² barn offering many possibilities for expansion, there is a pretty 74 m² gîte with a living room and toilet on the ground floor, as well as two bedrooms, a shower room, and a toilet upstairs. This represents a significant source of income, as it is rented out year-round.
