NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully restored village house is ideal as a comfortable full-time residence or an effortless lock-up-and-leave holiday home in the heart of the South of France.

Behind the main door, the ground floor opens into a characterful living room (22 m²) with flagstone flooring and exposed stone walls. A graceful stone arch leads to the living-dining room (20.5 m²), showcasing original regional tiles typical of the Languedoc, while a large wood-burning stove provides warmth and atmosphere during cooler months. The stylish open-plan kitchen (10.5 m²), fully fitted and equipped with a breakfast bar, benefits from a practical pantry for additional storage and opens directly onto the terraces and enclosed stone courtyards—an exceptional setting for outdoor dining and entertaining.

The first floor comprises a spacious landing, a shower room and separate WC. Two generous bedrooms are located here, including one with ensuite bathroom and built-in wardrobes. Polished quarry tiles run throughout the upper floors, adding continuity and elegance.

The second floor offers an impressive master suite (30 m²) with dressing area, mezzanine and shower room with separate WC, alongside a large fourth bedroom (26 m²) also featuring a mezzanine. A useful storage room completes this level.

Set in the centre of the sought-after Minervois village of La Livinière, renowned for its AOP wines, the property enjoys excellent local amenities including shops, bakery, pharmacy and restaurants. The medieval city of Carcassonne, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is just 30 minutes away, with the Mediterranean coast within 45 minutes. Convenient access...
